1. Applicant's arguments, see pages 6-7 of the response after final, filed July 30, 2007, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-22 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) and 103(a) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the finality of previous office action has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of O'Neill et al. '646 (newly cited) and Ramjee (of record).

2. Claims 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In each of claims 8 and 9, line 2, the term of "said routing update" does not have antecedent basis.

3. Claims 1, 17 and 22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 7,177,646 B2 in view of Ramjee et al. in U.S. Patent No. 6,842,462 (of record).

By omitting the further steps of handing over and routing packets to a third access node via a third routing path or a fourth routing path, and utilizing the "interface designating" or "tunneling" feature prior to the hand-over of the mobile node and IP address feature taught by Ramjee (see col. 3, lines 50-57, col. 4, lines 10-13) instead of using a type of routing update, claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 7,177,646 B2 claims the same invention as claims 1, 17 and 22 of the instant application.

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 2-7, 10-16, 18-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 2616

6. Claims 8 and 9 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Ahmadi et al. '026, '804 & '300, and Chang et al. are additionally cited to show the common feature of handover/handoff in mobile communication system utilizing mobile stations, base stations, routers similar to the claimed invention.

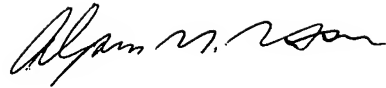

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Alpus H. Hsu whose telephone number is (571)272-3146. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (5:30-3:00) First Friday Off.
